

GROUND CREW

DO NOT MOVE THIS AIRCRAFT

Do not even attempt to move this aircraft unless you're familiar with its very unique ground handling characteristics.

This aircraft is light in the nose, and will fall backwards on its tail. This will cause substantial damage to the wheel pants, rudders and propeller. Which in turn will ruin a very nice day for both you and me.

John Mc Avoy
N961EZ